2. The vacant pension is claimed both by the widow for herself & ~~the~~ Ramappa Naik as being a member in the male line.

3. The Khazana Bakshi recommends that the pension may be given to Ranganna Nagathi, the widow, in preference to the other claimant for the reason given in para 1.

4. The following points require consideration.

(i) Whether no local enquiry is necessary in proof of the fact & date of death & in ascertainment of all legal heirs, as in this case no such enquiry has been made.

5. We may accept Khajana Bakshi's report &c.

Secretary to the Government of Mysore,

General Department.

Dated Bangalore, the 26th April 1916.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith a petition (without date) from Rangamma Nagathi of the Chitaldrug Poliegar family reporting that her husband, Sri Rangappa Naik died on the 28th March 1916 and praying that the pension enjoyed by him may be continued to her and to state as follows.-

Sri Rangappa Naik was allotted a pension of Rs.31-12-5 under G.O. No.11597-98/P.P.50, dated the 11th January 1902. He is now dead without any male issue, the idea he once appears to have had of making an adoption not having materialised. Having been divided from his nephew (vide same G.O.) his widow the Petitioner, Rangamma Nagathi is his nearest heir. I recommend, therefore, that the pension of Rs.31-12-5, he was enjoying may be continued to her with effect from the date of her husband's death.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Assistant Comptroller
